Mr. Hummel-We, the seniors of 1960, in appreciation for your friendliness, your willingness to lend a helping hand, and your untiring devotion to the Senior Class, do dedicate to you the Zonian of 1960, as a small token of our gratitude.

Before we, the forty-sixth class to leave the halls of Balboa High School with our eyes fixed on far-off goals, prepare to close our last high school textbook and accept our diploma, the Zonian Staff of 1960 would like to take a final trip in review of our wonderful years here.

The tracks of life for us extend far into the future, taking many turns and going out of sight. What is to come, we do not or could not know, but what has passed we will always remember. Therefore, with your permission, we shall board our train, good old "299" which has seen quite a bit of history, and take a trip back into our wonderful four years at Balboa High School. When we come back up to the present, we will stop and let you keep on going into your future. THE BEST OF LUCK TO YOU IN YOUR JOURNEY THROUGH LIFE!!!

CLASS

Soon we, the seniors, will be graduating and leaving BHS. We'll always have with us the memories of these four wonderful years of high school. The friends we've made and the experiences we've shared will remain with us forever.

Do you remember when we were freshmen; how wonderful it was to be in high school at last? Bonner Hadley, Ray Caldwell, and Penny Webb were elected to lead us through our first year. I'm sure none of us has forgotten the Frosh' Sop' Frolic when we, the lowly freshmen, beat those mighty sophomores. Betty Lou Wheaton was our queen. And what about the Freshman Picnic out at Summit Gardens? Unforgettable, wasn't it?

Before long we were sophomores. That year was even better than our first; we were looked up to and admired by those poor incoming freshmen. We elected Gary Ness, Ray Caldwell, and Barbara Bartlett to the offices of president, vice-president, and secretary of the mighty sophomore class! We were finally given the responsibility of holding a dance for the entire school, the Sadie Hawkins Dance. Terrific, wasn't it? Penny Waring was our Daisy Mae and Frank Bright, Li'l Abner. We were a little sorry to see that great year come to an end. Little did we realize what lay ahead!

Upperclassmen at last! Mike Kelly, Grady Hesters, and Susie Hele led us through this year, and what a year! Remember the day we got our class rings? Who can forget. We made sure everyone else in the school knew too, didn't we? We held the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet for the seniors that year. Next year they would be held in honor of us. A wonderful feeling, wasn't it? Our big dance was the Christmas Formal with Mary Lynne Stokley reigning as queen. Do you remember our Junior Class Beach Party? Another Class of "60" first.

In September of 1959 we entered into the most wonderful year of our four years of high school. We were now seniors. Our class officers were Bud Batcheldor, Jimmy Marshall, and Phil Cage and they couldn't have done a better job of leading us.

Karen Lytle was our lovely Football Queen and Chuck Rentz was honorary captain of the team at our last Jamboree. It was sad to think that this would be the last year we'd cheer the Bulldogs on to victory. Everyone had a wonderful time at our Valentine Formal with Queen Pat Shouts and King Eddie Dolan reigning over the evening.

We were given our caps and gowns, symbols of the fact we would soon be graduating, and now that the time is drawing near we can look back and remember the years spent in Balboa High School as some of the most wonderful and rewarding years of our life. We will be saying good-bye to the friends we've made and sorrows and joys we've been through but we can now look ahead. Graduation Day, the day we receive our diplomas, will be the most memorable day of our life, for that is the day we must step out into that big wide world of ours and face the future that lies ahead. Seniors Stand Up and Sing!

Even though our senior year promises to be great, our junior year will live long in our memories. To start our year we elected Doug Sikorski as President, Archie Carroll as Vice-president, and Linda Sikorski as Secretary. Mr. Robert Mullarky was our hard-working sponsor. Duncan Brown and his committee did a very efficient job obtaining our class rings, and our rings are beautiful. The Christmas Formal, theme "Winter Fantasy," was a big of the chairman to submit a complete, detailed report to the Student Council to go on file in the S.A. as further reference for future committees.

This year the following committees assisted in keeping our S.A. running on a smooth, even track:

The Co-ordinating Committee had the job of taking all problems and ideas discussed at the S.A. meetings before the faculty board.

The S.A. Ticket Sales Committee, headed by the S.A. Secretaries, was established for the purpose of efficiently selling S.A. Cards to students.

The Game Ticket Sales and Train Ticket Sales Committees worked alternately in connection with all athletic events taking place both on this side and on the Atlantic Side.

The Get Acquainted Dance and Inaugural Ball Committees had the full responsibility of making the arrangements for these two S.A. sponsored dances.

The Visitor's Day Committee consisted of students acting as guides on the day designated as the official day for parents to visit our school and teachers.

MR. W. MIKULICH
Adviser

Following a frantic week of campaigning, the election for the Student Association Officers produced the relatively close results of Grady Hesters as S.A. President and Woody French as S.A. Vice-President. Barbara Bartlett and Karen Lytle were appointed to uphold the office of S.A. Secretary. The oath of office was administered by the outgoing President, Solly Toussieh, at the Awards Assembly.

In addition to the new officers, another person entered the Student Association realm. This person, however, joined our S.A. not as a student member, but as S.A. Sponsor. Promoted from his former position as Junior Class Sponsor, Mr. Walter Mikulich proved to be quite helpful throughout the year.

Each and every homeroom, regardless of class or size, is represented in the S.A. meetings by the S.A. Representative elected in homeroom. Actually this representative represents not only your homeroom but you and your plans, problems, suggestions, and questions. These representatives, along with the S.A. Officers, compose the Student Council.

In order to become an S.A. Representative, the student nominated in each homeroom must have and maintain at least a "C" average scholastically. His duties consist mainly of attending all Student Council meetings, reporting your ideas, and then reporting any and all results to his homeroom promptly.

In the case of a representative's absence from school on the day of an S.A. meeting, it is the duty and responsibility of the S.A. Alternate to attend in the representative's place. Consequently, the alternate is elected to be a sort of "substitute" for the S.A. Representative.

With some of the choice seniors serving as chairmen of the eleven S.A. Committees, the S.A. Officers were never in need of interested, beneficial sources of initiative and drive found not only in the committees, but from the general student population of BHS. Upon the conclusion of the school year or the completion of the requirements expected of the committee, it is the duty

KAREN LYTLE

The Assemblies Committee was bestowed with the task of conducting the annual Talent Show.

The Awards Day Committee had the primary responsibility of making the arrangements for and formulating the assembly held at the close of the school year.

The Drives Committee had full charge in conducting the donations for the various drives.

The Safety and Welfare Committee, previously two separate committees, was continually on the lookout for hazards present in BHS.

With the co-operation and devotion of the S.A. Officers, Sponsors, Representatives, Alternates, Committees, and you, the supporting members, our Student Association displayed a very successful effort to improve our school. Not only has the S.A. done a great deal for us this year, but its valuable projects and undertakings have helped pave the way to even more success in the future for BHS.

THE WRITTEN ZONIAN

If you heard a loud rumble while you were walking down the hall, that seemed to get louder as you approached room 102, I hope you didn't run. It was only the Zonian and Parrakeet staffs working at their respective publications.

Under the direction and supervision of the co-editors, Carole Symonds and Dolores Wheeler, the Zonian was planned to be quite different and surely gave the entire student body of Balboa High School more pride and satisfaction in its yearbook. Jeanne Nickerson, business manager, tore her hair out trying to keep the money matters straight and all the other headaches that went along with the job.

"What's her name?", "Is he a Sophomore or a Junior?" are common, everyday expressions to the Zonian staff. If someone approached you with one of these, I hope you were patient and did your best in answering. Remember it was all in preparation for that big day in May when the 1960, bigger and better Zonians arrived.

WORD REMAINS PARRAKEET

Bedlam aptly described "the behind the scene" activities of pre-Parrakeet publication.

Editors Jane and Chris handed out assignments for the forth coming issue and for the week. "Ruth, you do 250 words on the Valentine Formal," or "Doug, you and George have the Parrakeet Daily this week."

After assignments were given out, there were always a few thousand questions such as "Can I have a pass to interview so and so?" or "Why do we have to have a test?"

Tom, our capable photographer, was promptly snowed under by picture requests.

As the deadline drew near, reporters scurried to and fro to get their stories in on time and managed to do so.

Proofs were read, dummy sheets made up, and the final page proof checked.

When the paper came out it was thoroughly "picked apart" for mistakes. Already plans were being made to begin this hectic procedure again, for by the end of the year, eight issues would have been published.

Girls from the first, second, and third year economic classes presented, under the supervision of Miss Eloise Monroe, the nineteenth annual fashion show. These talented Balboa girls modeled street dresses, sports clothes, formals, and semi-formals, which they made during the school year. The fashion show, Chez Eloise, was well attended in the new BHS Auditorium, January 13, 1960. It was the opinion of many present that it was one of the best fashion shows ever presented.

Models M. Conover, L. Fraenheim, E. Cox, and B. Smith show us the lovely clothes they made this year.

MUSIC

Mr. Herr just relaxin'.

This year marks the end of another busy and successful year for the BHS Music Department under the direction of Mr. Victor A. Herr, with the band having played at various school and community activities.

Starting off with music at pep assemblies and football games, forming a "modern music group," playing our "Alma Mater" for the seniors on Dress-up Day, the band has completed another active year.

CHORUS and GLEE CLUB

This year the 350 voice combined glee club and chorus and also, the orchestra and band staged successful performances in the new long-awaited BHS auditorium.

For a little variety, the 59th annual Christmas presentation was given in two concerts — a band and orchestra concert and a chorus and glee club concert. Again at the Christmas concert, the charming troubador singers were featured, and they and a trombone quartet performed at both concerts. The outstanding feature of the choral concert was Roy Ringwald's Song of Christmas, which was accompanied by the pit band.

At the annual spring concert, which was also presented in two different performances, we heard instrumental music from composers such as Greig, Moussorgsky, Rossini, Sonza, Holst, and Hanson. As far as choral music goes, we heard special arrangements for choral groups such as Shaw, Wagner, and Waring. On the contemporary side was George Shearing's "Lullaby of Bird Land."

The music department also performed at the baccalaureate services, graduation, inauguration of the new auditorium and at various school productions.

ORCHESTRA

"ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE"

This year's Sock and Buskin is the biggest club in BHS. Its membership is about 200 drama-interested students. The club, sponsored by Mr. Musselman, functions as an instigator of the dramatic arts by giving students the opportunity to present plays. Two main productions were presented this year. The first was "Quality Street" by J. M. Barrie. In addition numerous short skits, such as "That's Why I'm a Bachelor" were given at regular meetings.

The National Thespians is composed of students who have earned ten points in any one, or a combination, of dramatic work. Such activities as make-up, staging, acting, lighting, and sound effects are considered. The initiation of the National Thespian members was held in January in our new auditorium.

As the final event of the year the Drama Club Banquet with a Hawaiian theme was given in May.

KNOWLEDGE IS THE KEY TO SUCCESS

With President Pedro Janowitz in the conductor's seat, the B.H.S. chapter of the National Honor Society successfully went through a spring and fall initiation. Of the many projects discussed, tutoring was decided upon and successfully carried out by this society which stresses character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

This year the Mu Alpha Theta completed its second year of existence in B.H.S. With Bill Browder as President, Grace Vale as Vice-President, and Kay Flowers as Secretary, this honorary society, composed of juniors and seniors with a "B" average in Math, has again come through successfully. As we went to press a large project was planned for February.

Tom,
It's been nice knowing and you this year and we had a lot of fun
during the five weeks
we dated one another.
Don't forget the best class and all the parties & me.

Tom,
Here's wishing you all the "loves"
luck and happiness in the world. You're real sweet, except at times, but you're still my good old brother.
Love,
Bw.

Tom:
Best of luck always to someone who needs
it in one certain field.

CHEER- LEADERS

KAREN

MARION

In all types of weather, they stick together to cheer our team on to victory. And that is exactly what these vivacious cheerleaders did this year.

After the Easter Vacation any girl interested in becoming a cheerleader attends practice and tryout sessions conducted under the strict supervision of Miss Lehman and the cheerleaders. Among the many requirements of the cheerleader, she must have a 2.0 average at least. From the final tryout eight girls are selected for the cheerleading squad by a committee of students and faculty.

Although an honorable position, being a cheerleader requires a great deal of hard work. It is their responsibility to organize the pep rallies in addition to daily practice during the season.

FOOTBALL

Due to the fact that Coaches Horine and Anderson had such a large number of boys trying out at the beginning of the season, they were able to pick one of the best teams BHS has seen in years. The Bulldogs showed their ability by not only obtaining the Canal Zone Championship, but the Interscholastic Championship as well.

GIRLS INTRAMURALS

The aim of intramural sports is to get every girl in school to go out for some kind of activity. For this purpose Balboa High School had a well-rounded Intramural Program for its girls this year. The girls had a chance to participate in basketball, bowling, volleyball, and swimming. After about six weeks of competition within the school, the coaches met to pick "A" and "B" league All-Stars. These girls then played against the All-Stars from Junior College, and Critobal High School.

"Will it go in?"

G. A. A.

The Girl's Athletic Association, an exclusive sports club, has sportsmanship as its keynote. The girls who have made All Stars in either basketball, bowling, volleyball or swimming are eligible for membership. After the All Stars are selected by the coaches, they are pledged as members of the G.A.A.
