

We traded those summer days—languid, giddy and sun-streaked, full of frivolity—for school days—shorter (yet longer), industrious and brimming with reading, writing, and arithmetic. We traded our tennis rackets, short shorts, and zoris for books, skirts and pants, and shoes; our leisurely lunches at the beach for "Type A" or "A la Carte" in the Clubhouse or hasty hamburgers at the Teen Club; our evenings of movies, moonlit walks, and beach parties for after school bouts with English and math, thrilling moments at football games, and romantic dates with that "dream who sits next to me in Spanish class."

THE GREAT TRANSITION—The profit?

A YEAR . . . A year of classrooms, activities, achievements, competition and business.

A YEAR in review—a treasury of memories joyful in retrospect. And . . . yours!

THE GREAT TRANSITION . . . not as risky perhaps as many, but realizing a far greater profit. Where else could we have gained the YEAR so full of living—with its happinesses, its sorrows, its joys, its doldrums, its conquests, its perplexities, and even its tragedies? Never again will the same feet tramp the same halls, the same teachers lecture the same students, the same activities cause the same flurries of excited anticipation. This yearbook has tried to recapture glimpses of our YEAR through photographs and words, although no amount of ink or Kodachrome or photo fixer could fully portray the profound meaning and effects of our YEAR . . .

For your warm human approachability

For the traditions which you have held through the years

For the high standards you have initiated and kept sacred

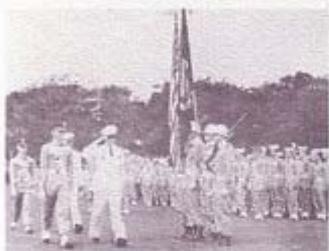

We dedicate this book to you, the students, in the hope that as you read these pages you will recall that precious segment of your lives spent in Balboa High School.

Campus

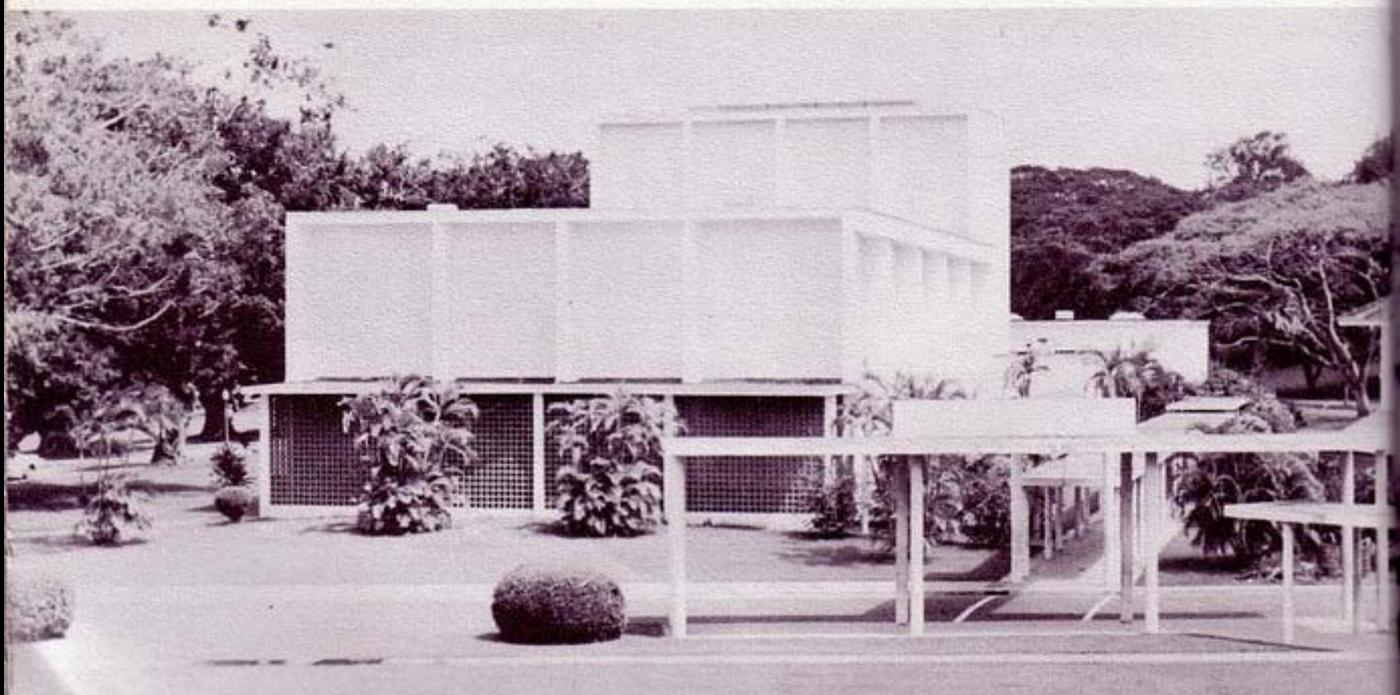

It would be only proper to begin with the grounds on which this GREAT TRANSITION was accomplished. This is our CAMPUS . . . where the memories of succeeding classes are recorded in well-trodden hallways and penciled desks.

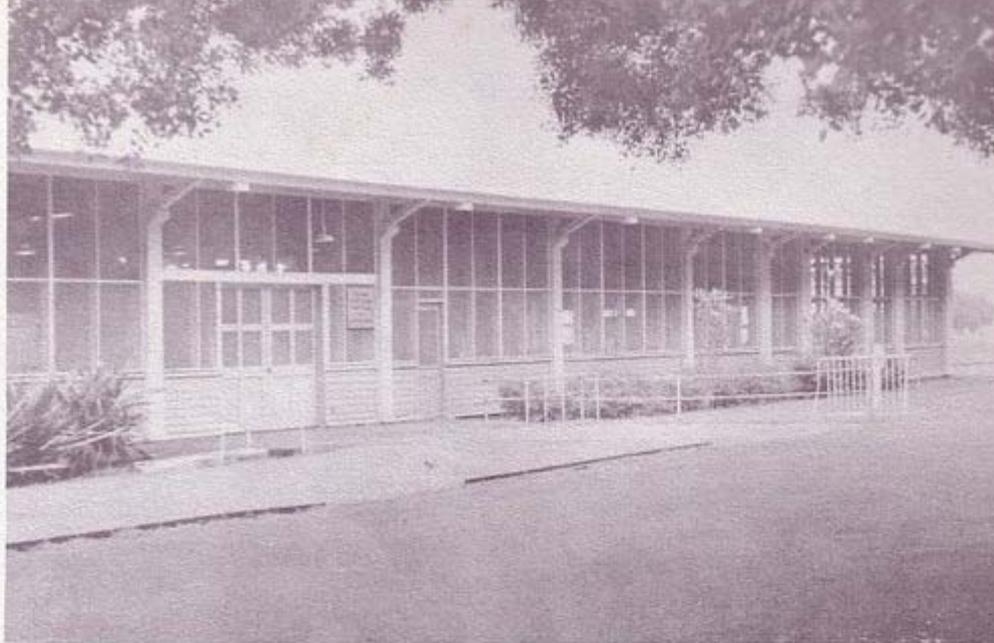

Seasons change. Rain and sun alike have fallen on our CAMPUS—but one thing remains consistent—our pride and love for this, our ever-changing CAMPUS.

Activities

A YEAR of doing, of . . . ACTIVITIES — sometimes serious-minded, sometimes insanely foolish. Activities stud the school year with sparkling memories. Fun and frolic filled the YEAR with gayety, but serious moments, such as the National Honor Society's inductions, will be long remembered. Then, there were club elections, SA elections and doings—all the bustling business of students learning to live with each other.

The speeches were over, the clutter cleared away, and Charles Cross and Alfred Osborne emerged as the President and Vice-President of the 1961-62 Student Association. Teaming up with their selected secretaries, Shirley Murphy and Marilyn Floyd, and under the experienced guidance of their sponsor, Mr. Walter Mikulich, the group set their goals for the betterment of the school year which has just passed. This year has been a year full of additions . . . a coke machine for the students . . . smartly designed decals . . . a great upward swing in school spirit . . . greater student participation in all activities . . . formation of a basic seriousness of purpose . . . and most important of all—the feeling of a job well done.

PARRAKEET

This year there are eleven students on the Parrakeet staff, seven seniors and four juniors. The Parrakeeters learn how to write a headline, write special articles such as features or interviews, cover meeting, note-taking tips, and other valuable "tricks of the trade." All sources of information must be investigated. Each member constantly searches for leads to a possible feature. Journalism provides a glimpse into a fascinating field of work as well as allowing the journalist the opportunity to perform a service to his school.

Under the guidance of Mr. Brown, the sponsor, ten senior girls and one sophomore boy arranged and planned the 1962 ZONIAN for Balboa High School. With much hard work and effort, the staff has put together to the best of their ability a ZONIAN of which they are very proud.

Under the direction of a new teacher, Mr. Breen, the band provides an outlet for the musically inclined students of Balboa High School. The students practice daily for their many performances during the year, including the Christmas and Spring Concerts, pep rallies, and football games.

ture Symphony in C". The orchestra's fine work can be heard at such school functions as the National Honor Society assemblies, Baccalaureate Services, Graduation exercises, and the Christmas and Spring Concerts.

As the last few notes of "Martha" fall away to nothing but echoes and the curtain falls before the gaily dressed "peasants" of the Glee Club, the present is gone and all the effort and hard work has become the past. A love for music and a knack for working together brought together the fifty odd members of the Glee Club for a year of Thursday night rehearsals and last minute flurries.

For those members for whom it has been the last year, they take with them not only the memories of music and colorful programs, but the pleasant moments of joking and laughter with Mr. Breen, their patient and devoted director. At Baccalaureate services, the closing strains of "Faust" mark the finale of a year of music, devoted work, and harmonious friendships.

This year the band entertained the patients of Gorgas Hospital in the Red Cross Room, and at the spring concert it presented a wide range of music, the favorite piece being "El Relicario". The band has been working hard throughout the year and has thoroughly enjoyed its Monday night sessions. This year's officers were: Marjorie Miller, president; Kaye Sergeant, vice-president; Frances Lindh, secretary-treasurer.

The Junior Organ Guild

The Balboa High School chapter of the Junior Organ Guild has been in existence for two years. This organization is a guild student group of the American Guild of Organists, which was founded in New York in 1896. Some of the main purposes of the American Guild of Organists are: to advance the cause of worthy religious music; to elevate the status of church musicians; and to raise the standards of efficiency of organists and choirmasters by examination. Today a great and influential national organization, the American Guild of Organists has chartered more than fifty student groups in colleges, schools, and communities. The B.H.S. chapter is composed of eight organ students. Their sponsor is Mrs. Anona Kirkland, a member of the adult group. Officers for the year 1961-1962 are: Dean, Carol Bruland; Vice Dean, Melinda Mallahan; Secretary-Treasurer, Marsha Ecker. The members of the guild student group performed at the school music programs throughout the year.

The aim of the Science Club is to advance and inspire future scientists in their respective fields. Under the co-sponsorship of Mr. Jenkins and Mr. Banasick, the club is fulfilling its goal. For the members who are interested in one particular science the club has formed four different committees in the fields of physics, chemistry, biology, and radio electronics. These committees further the club's success by giving each member a chance to develop his knowledge and skill in his favorite science.

The National Thespian Society is a non-secret, non-social honorary society created to provide an active experienced nucleus for the Sock and Buskin and for school dramatic productions. The society has members, of which were initiated in May. At the initiation ceremony the play "Away, You Rolling River" was presented. This production represented the combined efforts of both the old and new members and was an exercise in flexible theatre.

This year the meetings of the Sock and Buskin presented some interesting skits, one-act plays, and slides of the theater in the U.S.A. George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man" and Truman Capote's "The Grass Harp" were the two major productions of the year. The banquet, which was held aboard the Las Cruces, will long be remembered. It was in this manner that the activities of the Drama Club were brought to a close for the year.

The goal of the Future Teachers of America is to acquaint interested members of the student body with the possibilities of teaching as a career. This year about forty girls worked together in exploring the various facets of the profession. One of the main media employed for this purpose was the procurement of guest speakers for this purpose was the procurement of guest speakers to discuss teaching as they know it. They all gave interesting talks to the club on such things as the qualities necessary to be a good teacher, the differences between the various levels of teaching, and the advantages and disadvantages of the profession. Every year the club chooses a worthy project to work on just before and during the Christmas season. This year the time was spent in planning and giving parties for two different groups of handicapped children. The project proved very worthwhile as it was enjoyed by the club members as well as the children. Also, it helped the F.T.A. members to explore the possibilities of a career in special education. The officers for the 1961-1962 school year were: Teddie Hobbie, President; Kaye Sergeant, Vice President; and Sherry South, Secretary-Treasurer. Miss Brown was the faculty sponsor.

Point of View Club

The purpose of the POINT OF VIEW CLUB is to prepare students for college by acquainting them with various types of literature and with the authors of individual literary eras. The members read books and at their meetings have planned programs in which they discuss the book, the author, and sometimes compare the two with other works of a similar nature. Some of the books studied this year are The Catcher in the Rye, Canterbury Tales, and Antigone. A separate committee prepared a summer reading list which will be beneficial to students during summer vacations. The club has also planned a definite program which will serve as a guide for furthering the preparation of the college bound student.

The French Club which is under the able sponsorship of Mrs. S. Haselden successfully undertook to acquaint interested students with the customs, sports, and interest of the average French person. The Club met once a month and discussed subjects as varied as French cuisine, French colonies, and French wars. These programs were always prepared ahead by a program committee. Another committee, the refreshment committee, added a certain zest to the meetings since it was from its source that the members go to sample many French delicacies. It can honestly be said that the members left at the end of the year feeling that they knew much more on the French and their way of life.

Pan American Club

The members of the Pan American Club had a wonderful time this year studying the culture and customs of Latin America. At many of the meetings, slides of the different countries were shown and speeches on them were given. Panama and its provinces were included in these discussions. As a supplement, to add gaiety to these sessions, students records of the different countries and demonstrated their dances. The artistic members did a wonderful job in the school's showcase and on the decorations of the Tivoli Ballroom where the Carnival Dance was held. Thanks to its hardworking sponsors, Mrs. Bissett and Mrs. Solitto, the Club accomplished the aims it set at the beginning of the year admirably well.

Club de Conversacion y Clutura

Julio Barba
Vice-President

The Club de Conversacion y Clutura, or the Triple C, as it is more commonly called, gained much standing this year, due to the many cultural achievements its members put forth and the countless hours of tutoring that were donated by these members to students and teachers of Balboa High School.

The active sponsors, Mrs. De Armas and Miss Perez, prepared a full schedule of activities that were marvelously carried out, adding gaiety to the club's motto of promoting friendship and understanding between the people of the Canal Zone and Panama and, at the same time, acquainting the people of the Zone with Panama's folklore, culture, and language.

One of the Club's most outstanding activities was the November third program, in which well-known Panamanian artists participated. Another was the Carnival Dance, for which American students were prepared by Miss Cecilia Pinzon, who is quite well known as a Panamanian dance teacher. Lastly, it must not be forgotten that the Triple C helped the Panamanian Antituberculosis Drive by having a group of its members sell Christmas Seals in the Canal Zone.

"Click Incorporated," formerly known as the Balboa High School Camera Club, endeavors to aid students to become better acquainted with their cameras. Programs are provided, such as the Kodak International Photo Contest winners' photos and speakers. Students are encouraged to improve their photographing and to enter their photos in contests. Points of interest to the members are visited on trips which are taken approximately once every six weeks with the two final trips combined into one which is exceptional. Some of the places visited this year were the various cathedrals and ruins in and near Panama City, Gaillard Cut, Fort San Lorenzo, and the final trip to Taboga Island.

Athletics

A YEAR of athletics, of . . . COMPETITION. The shrill of a whistle cuts the sultry air, a football soars high, and hundreds of fans shout as young bodies plunge through the line, mightily carrying the ball across the goal line . . . Another whistle, sinewy arms reach frantically to tip the basketball to a team member, muscled legs streak across the court and expert hands sink the ball through the hoop . . . varsity sports, calling for teamwork and fast thinking coordination, calling for support from cheering fans, calling for the best a school can give physically. A win, a loss—they mean nothing if the game is not played well . . .

The Balboa Bulldogs had a very prosperous season this year. Placing second in the annual Christobal Jamboree, we moved into the regular season as strong favorites to win the championship. But our good start with two wins and one tie seemed to cause our heads to swell; and we did poorly until the last game, which we won. There were no really outstanding stars on the team, but we did manage to play as a team until the end of the season.

The B.H.S. boys' swimming team had a good season this year and completed the season undefeated to win the interscholastic championship for this year. This year's team captain was Harry Van Loon. Our boys team displayed lots of depth, power and speed in all events. A total of nine new interscholastic swimming records were established by this 1961-62 team. We will lose Harry Van Loon, James Manning and Danny Michaels along with several other point makers this year, and swimmers who will be relied on to carry the load in the future will be David Zemer and Roark Summerfield.

Kathy Jenkins and Maggie Mahoney were two of our finest swimmers of our team this year. Grace Figueroa did a fine job in the sprints. The big loss for next year will be Kathy Jenkins with no replacement in sight to swim the longer races for the girls put seven new interscholastic records on the books this year. The Girls' springboard diving was dominated by B.H.S. with Betty Van Dyke receiving most of the honors.

Oh how fresh and wide-eyed we were when we started! How new and fascinating everything looked. It didn't take long for us, however, to become acquainted with the thrills and trials of high school and to take our place among the people around us. Our first event was the election of class officers which was won by Bob Russell, Bonnie Earp, and Kathy Devine. This enthusiastic and loyal trio proved itself quite worthy of its position under the superb guidance of its sponsor, Mr. George Case. We feel proud of the various showcases put up by our committees and of the committees whose work livened our Freshman year. Our Freshman Dance, a lovely event, was well attended and enjoyed by all. Now after sampling the trials and perils of high school, we feel that we're well on the way to joining that sometimes envied, but greatly admired group, the upperclassmen. Although we look forward to future years, we will never forget the perplexities, sorrows, joys and emotions we had in this one.

Sophomores

SOPHOMORES . . . Two years down and two more to go. The end of this YEAR marks the turning point. Your GREATEST TRANSITION this YEAR has been in the acquisition of experience. Those days of being a newcomer, a tenderfoot, are gone. No longer can you plead ignorance of the laws. It has become a necessity for you to advance, to make a place for yourself, and your class, in a greater YEAR to come.

Sophomores

Our sophomore year is over, but we'll always have with us the memories of its triumphs and its joys. Assisted by our sponsors, Mr. Cook and Mr. White, we made the most of this, our second year in high school. Our Sadie Hawkins Dance was fun and well attended by upperclassmen as well as underclassmen, with Peggy MacConnell and Joe Bremer leading the pack as Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner. Our showcases showed careful thought and planning, and our class officers took their part in leading the business of our class. And so, as this year closes, we look forward to an even more exciting one next fall.

Juniors

And your YEAR . . . what does your YEAR mean? It has been your introduction to tomorrow. It has been a most important TRANSITION. Your reaction to the situations that have arisen this year will determine your ability to cope with next year's challenges. This ZONIAN is your YEAR in retrospect, too, and a stimulant to help you face the future.

Junior Class Officers

George Fitzgerald
President

Allan Hesters
Vice-President

Joe Peddrick
Secretary

A year of fun—a year of studies—a year of working together for personal and collective benefit. All of these have combined to create a lasting memory of the Junior Class of 1962. Under the friendly and able leadership of the president, George Fitzgerald, working hand in hand with the class sponsors, Mr. George Willingham and Mr. E. W. Hatchett, Jr., the class contributed much toward the spirit and meaning of their year in BHS. Under the president were two more hard working boys: Allan Hesters, the vice-president, and Joe Peddrick, secretary. The Christmas Formal and its theme "Winter Fantasy" was the first important Junior event, followed by the arrival of the new and different class rings—a gold ring set with a red stone. Next came rockets and plans for the future as the Juniors hosted the Senior class at the Tivoli for a highly successful Junior-Senior Banquet. As a parting remembrance from the Junior Class, the Junior-Senior Prom at the Amador Officers' Club provided pleasant and lasting thoughts. As this year comes to an end, the Junior class of today looks forward anxiously to becoming the Senior Class of tomorrow.

Seniors

A YEAR of classes, of . . . SENIORS — laughing, “blue”, serious, studious, mischievous . . . human. Their trials and triumphs, tribulations and pleasures, joys and sorrows combined to make this YEAR their greatest transition. The halls reverberated with choruses of their “Senior Song” and their gay laughter, knowing that soon they would be adults, with nothing left of their YEAR but nostalgic memories . . .

Senior Class History

As we look back on our accomplishments, friendships, and knowledge we have gained, we realize we have reached the primary turning point of our lives. Indeed, we can justly be proud of our successful four year journey which was not always a successful one.

Guiding us through the path of the maze of our first year was our president, Butch Zent. Assisting him were Vice-President Robert Chandler and Secretary Aloha Shatrosky. After making the initial adjustment to our studies, we found that there would be time for fun also. The Fresh-Soph Frolic was now in order, and Reba Kirk was chosen as our queen. When Carnival came around, Montse Burillo and Marion Clare were members of the court at the Carnival Dance. At the Valentine Formal Aloha Shatrosky and Joyce Herring were attendants. Soon, the year had been completed and we were familiar with the halls of B.H.S.

In order to help us cross the bridge which would take us through our sophomore year, we elected Tom Collins as president, Butch Zent as vice president, and Jeannine Hebert along with Marilyn Floyd as secretary. How triumphant we felt when our long-awaited rings of black and gold arrived in time for Christmas! This really gave us a feeling of belonging. Even though we found our studies more rigorous than ever, we took some time off for diversion. No bulldog likes all work and no play. So, our Christmas Formal, a combination of work and play, resulted in a resplendent success with Reba Kirk reigning over her court of Jeanne Halvosa, Charlene Bishop, Ruby Bacot, and Lupe Lowe. Another task we soon found ourselves undertaking was the Jr.-Sr. Banquet. It was our duty as juniors to honor the departing seniors with this traditional banquet. The menu, coinciding with the Alaskan theme, consisted of such delicacies as Whale Blubber (tenderloin steak), Baby Seal (shrimp cocktail), Baked Alaska (dessert), and Arctic Water (tea or coffee). As a climax to the evening, President Charles Cross presented the seniors with a giant-sized snowball from Alaska with all our names on it. Next, came the Jr.-Sr. Prom at which Shirley Murphy and Karen Schmidt were chosen to attend the court. At the Valentine Formal, Lillian Luddy and Jeanne Halvosa composed the members of the queen's court. Representing our as secretary. Then, we settled down to resume our studies with renewed vigor. However, we didn't have long to wait before we were planning our Sadie Hawkins Dance. Leading the chase as Daisy Mae was Ginny Jansen, followed by Charlene Bishop (Mammy Yokum), Robert Bacot (Moonbeam McSwine), and Joyce Herring (Wolfgal), Tom Collins (Li'l Abner), Bob Diller (Tiny), Pete Kelly (Horse Shoe), and Willie Peterson (Battle Neck) were escorts. Once again we found ourselves participating in the Valentine Formal. This time, Jeannine Herbert and Jeanne Halvosa were our choices for the court. For the Carnival Queen's court, Osiris Cornejo was chosen. Now another activity overtook us, in the form of SA Campaigns. Willie Peterson emerged as the victor for SA Vice-President for the following year. Successfully crossing the bridge of our sophomore year, we felt prepared to meet with oncoming challenges.

Re-entering in September, we truly sensed a strong feeling of loyalty to our old Alma Mater. Leading us capably through another year was President Charles Cross. Once more filling the position of vice-president was Butch Zent Class at the Carnival Dance was Vivian Nahmad. After much campaigning, Charles Cross was elected as our SA President for the subsequent year along with Secretaries Marilyn Floyd and Shirley Murphy.

President Frank Rybicki, Vice-President Tom Collins and Secretary Sidney Ringstead led us through our mighty SENIOR Year as the CLASS of 1962. We all knew that our journey to completion was approaching.

As we attended the Senior Picnic at Summit Gardens and other activities for the last time, we knew that we would be leaving a well-paved road behind us. Upon the receipt of our diplomas, we all felt a bittersweet combination of sadness and happiness. We are now ready for the highways of the future which stretch far beyond the horizon. So, while we fondly gaze upon the halls of our beloved B.H.S. for the last time, we realize that although we have come a long way from crossing over our first bridge, there is still much ahead of us. Thus, with this thought in mind, we the Class of 1962 will go onward fulfilling our hopes and dreams for a better world.

In Memoriam

Always a smile, never a tear,
Offering friendship and hearty cheer,
Fun to be with, never sad,
Always cheerful, always glad,
Though he's gone, he will always be,
A cherished thought and memory.
